A Fly on a Wall in a Publishing House. September 8th

Come join Dave Fessenden, who has been in the publishing industry for ages. He's been an editor and a managing editor, and is now a literary agent and publisher.

Getting your book traditionally published isn't easy even if you've been published traditionally before. Breaking down the barrier as a new author is hard. It isn't as easy as mailing (or emailing) your manuscript. There's a multitude of things to consider and to do before licking that stamp or clicking send.

Find out the inside scoop and learn the secrets of how to get your manuscript published by a traditional publishing house. Learn what the common mistakes made by countless authors are so you can avoid them. Learn the seven crucial elements that you need to include in your submission, and so much more.

September 8th, 3 pm Eastern, 2 pm Central, 1 pm Mountain, Noon Pacific

All the members of Authors Community are praying for all of our friends and online family in Florida and all others who are in the path of hurricane Irma. We are also praying for all those affected by hurricane Harvey. May our Lord protect you, your family, your neighbors, your possessions, and your emotions and health as you deal with this situation. In Jesus mighty name. Amen.
